The Montgomery College Nonprofit Leadership Institute 2012 Nonprofit Management Boot Camp

The Montgomery College Nonprofit Leadership Institute invites applicants for the 2012 Nonprofit Management Boot Camp. The Boot Camp is designed to challenge and cultivate the skills of mid-level administrators (program directors and program managers), directors and those new to management. It is ideal for those individuals who find themselves managing personnel and programs and who desire to participate in a professional development program. The program will last over an eight (8) month period which will include nine (9) full-day sessions at the Montgomery College Gaithersburg Business Training Center.

We are pleased to announce that Maryland Nonprofits will be the lead facilitating organization. Maryland Nonprofits' mission is to strengthen, educate, and engage nonprofit organizations, so they can successfully achieve their missions. Their commitment to professional development, facilitating, and training will enable us to provide an effective, intense, and interactive program.
